

STRANGER ON THE ROAD

“You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself.” (Luke 10:25) “In everything, do to others as you would have them do to you.” (Matthew 7:12)

The significance of the parable of the Good Samaritan “love does not care if a brother or sister in need comes from one place or another. For love shatters the chains that keep us isolated and separate; in their place, it builds bridges. Love enables us to create one great family, where all of us can feel at home... love exudes compassion and dignity.”

“Will we bend down to touch and heal the wounds of others?
Will we bend down to help another to get up?”
